UNITY Intergroup Website Guidelines

https//www.aaportugal.net

Purpose: The purpose of www.aaportugal.net is to carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous by providing a resource whereby information about Alcoholics Anonymous and A.A. in Portugal may be easily found on the internet, and for locating A.A. meetings and current events around Portugal and beyond.

Content: www.aaportugal.net provides contact and website information for UNITY Intergroup of Alcoholics Anonymous and service groups, and links to sites which are about A.A. and for A.A. members, in accordance with the AA Internet Guidelines. www.aaportugal.net does not list or link to sponsored websites. In accordance with Tradition 11 of the 12 Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous, individuals are not personally identified on www.aaportugal.net nor does the website link with any site which personally identifies members of Alcoholics Anonymous. Based on the experience of A.A. members worldwide, the site managers of www.aaportugal.net take heed the Internet Guidelines as published by the New York General Service Office: http://www.aa.org/assets/en_US/mg-18_internet.pdf unless the CSC and/or UNITY Intergroup of Alcoholics Anonymous specifically state otherwise.

Copyrights and Fair Use: No part of www.aaportugal.net may be copied or reproduced without the express written permission of UNITY Intergroup of Alcoholics Anonymous. When A.A. World Services, Inc. and A.A. Grapevine, Inc. literature is presented on www.aaportugal.net the appropriate credit lines requested by A.A. World Services, Inc. and A.A. Grapevine are used. Contact A.A. World Services and/or A.A. Grapevine if you require permissions for use of copyrighted material.
